Do you have a product, website or something that you want to get blasted out on the Internet FAST?

It can be done and it's easier than you think ;-)

You can get TOP placements at Google in record-breaking time instead of having to wait weeks on end.

I know this because I've proved it and I am going to show you a real quick, recent example of it in action below...

This is really sneaky stuff... prepare to be shocked!

Here is an example of recent Press release I did with "Soap Making Secrets" which was actually a mistake on my part.

I originally wanted to make the main keyword "Soap Making" instead of "Soap Making Secrets" because soap making had over 22,000 searches the previous month...

soap making recipe	2935
soap making supply	8475
wholesale soap making supply	1266
soap making kit	753
soap making	22311
candle making	679
making glycerine soap	391

But I left it alone and wanted to see what it would do. I certainly never thought I would get the TOP spot at Google (see below)

The screenshot shows a Google search for "Soap Making secrets". The search bar contains the text "Soap Making secrets" and the search button is visible. The results page shows "Results 1 - 10 of about 448,000 for Soap Making secrets (0.12 seconds)". The top result is a press release titled "BREAKTHROUGH: Soap Making Secrets" from prweb.com. A yellow callout box with an arrow points to this result, stating "Top spot at Google for 'Soap making Secrets'". To the right, there are sponsored links for "Soap Making Ingredients" and "Looking For Soap Making?".

Do you see the power in this! This one method alone could bring boatloads of exposure! You need to know a few key factors though when writing your press release... and that's using your keyword term that you want to target in the appropriate places! Here's an example below of the above press release:

Here's the exact press release above as it is seen when you click the link at Google

Breakthrough Soap Making Secrets

Dave Cushion says: "These are soap making secrets most soap makers never discover" In his breakthrough new book made just for people who love making their own soap... or want to learn how to.

(PRWEB) September 28, 2004 -- "It's not like any of those generic books you find at the book stores. Ones with pretty pictures but little in the way of detailed instructions." says Dave C

It's like having your own soap making coach show you not only the basics of soap making, but also all the insider tricks, tips and techniques that the experts use to make advanced, hand-crafted soaps.

Based on years of research Dave doesn't leave the reader hanging.

"Learning how to make soap is not brain surgery" Cushion explains. "That's why I wrote Soap Making Made Simple"

Until now, it would take you months of struggling to learn how to make your own soap. This book really DOES MAKE IT EASY. It's perfect for beginners and even advanced soap makers.

Dave even shows all the tricks world-class soap makers rely on to make their best soaps.

He also provides invaluable links to organizations, books and the best places online to get additional information.

The keyword you see underlined above "Soap Making Secrets" like I said... should have been "Soap Making" instead. This seems to make all the difference in the press release by having the keyword you want to target in the order shown below:

When you write a free press release at PR-WEB you have a "Headline Section" a "Summary Section" and a "Body Section"

The headline:

*Breakthrough Soap Making Secrets

The Summary:

Dave Cushion says: "These are Soap Making Secrets most soap makers never discover" In his breakthrough new book made just for people who love making their own soap... or want to learn how to.

The Body:

Now, you'll notice that I didn't use the keyword Soap Making Secrets in the body of the press release. Well, darn it! I left it out like a dummy – Oh well, as I test this method out more thoroughly I will be sure to include it next time. But I noticed that if you include your target keyword in all three sections: Headline, summary, and body... this is what seems to get you top placements at Google for your press release.

Once again, I am still in the testing stages and you are more than welcome to use it yourself and see what you come up with. However, in order to get the most out of this little secret I suggest you go to the source I went to.

Here is another example of an ebook I promoted and actually made some sales on using this same method

This was an ebook about dog obedience training and I've made a few more sales since in the months following. It cost me nothing but a little bit of time writing the press release and look what I ended up with. It's no less than AMAZING!

Once again, I am still in the testing stages and you are more than welcome to use it yourself and see what you come up with. However, in order to get the most out of this little secret I suggest you go to the source I went to.

A young Fella by the name of Costa Dedes discovered this little treasure and has put together a nicely done instructional report with videos too! I have spoken to Costa on the phone and he's a great guy and very helpful – I highly recommend his report with confidence that you're getting bang for your buck! You can visit his website at this link below and check out all the details.
